Wednesday last a pleasant surprise was given Rev. F. T. Griffith and family in the nature of a Thanksgiving donation from the people of his church and the community. The presentation speech was made by Mr. B. C. King, to which Mr. Griffith pleasantly responded in the presence of a goodly company, expressing sincere appreciation of the kind thought that prompted the act, and the substantial tokens of good will. He stated that he and his family had been "pounded" with turkey, chickens, etc. been "pounded" with turkey, chickens, etc., throughout the day, but had gracefully submitted.
